

WHY GO ON THE
winter retreat

life gets . . .

BUSY, NOISY, CRAZY, WILD, ANNOYING, FRUSTRATING, UNCONTROLLABLE, STRESSFUL, EMOTIONAL, CONFUSING, DISTRESSING.

What we all need sometimes is an opportunity to . . .

Feeling tired or overwhelmed? Take a breather. Laugh a lot. Eat some good food. Turn off from the busy life you lead. Disconnect from your phone. The retreat is about getting a little rest.

Get away into the mountains to . . .

reset

We all need time and a quiet place rest. That's what the Winter Retreat is for, an opportunity to hit the reset button, with God, with others, or with life.

Perhaps what you need to do is . . .

refocus

You started the school year off so well, but life got busy, things got confusing, and your goals seem unreachable. Maybe your relationship with God has taken a nose-dive for the worse. The Winter Retreat is chance to refocus yourself towards what you really want to achieve.

Munyoki joined New Song's staff in 2016 as the Youth Pastor. He was born in Kenya but has lived in Pennsylvania for 20 years before joining New Song. He received his degree from Toccoa Falls College in Georgia. He enjoys finding amazing food from around the world, music, and active sports.

ABOUT NEW SONG COMMUNITY CHURCH

We love reaching out to people in Oceanside, Camp Pendleton, North San Diego County, and around the world, and introducing them to the love of Jesus Christ! With two church locations, six service times, and approximately 1,200 total attendees each weekend, New Song truly is "The Church Next Door." You'll discover that we are a multi-racial, multi-generational, military-loving, Bible-based, Christian church, here to love God and love people.
